HiFX Cookie Policy

Cookies are small, often encrypted text files, located in your internet browser and are used by most websites. We use them to help personalise your web experience, ensure you can navigate our website efficiently and perform certain functions. Due to their core role of enhancing or enabling usability or site processes, disabling cookies may prevent you from using certain parts of this website. It will also mean that some features on this website will not function if you do not allow cookies.

In this section you will find information on what cookies may be set when you visit the HiFX.co.uk and HiFXonline.co.uk websites and how to reject or delete those cookies. For additional information you may wish to read the HiFX Privacy Policy, or visit www.aboutcookies.org which contains comprehensive information for a variety of browsers.

1. Introduction and General Terms

HiFX is committed to protecting you and your family's personal information when you are using HiFX services. We want our services to be enjoyable, easy and safe and environments for both visitors and clients.

HiFX is committed to safeguarding your personal information. Whenever you provide such information, we are legally obliged to use your information in line with all laws concerning the protection of personal information, including the Data Protection Act 1998 (these laws are referred to collectively in this Privacy Policy as the "data protection laws").

Please note that HiFX websites contain hyperlinks to websites owned and operated by third parties. These third party websites have their own privacy policies, including cookies, and we urge you to review them. They will govern the use of personal information you submit or is collected by cookies whilst visiting these websites. We do not accept any responsibility or liability for the privacy practices of such third party websites and your use of such websites is at your own risk.
